

Showcases

To make Sønderborg a ZEROcarbon Society, we need to change society's current way of thinking and acting.

As we believe in "seeing is believing" and that change "spreads like ripples on water", ProjectZero and its partners have developed a number of important showcases.

The showcases allow citizens, corporations and visitors to be inspired by the best practice from local cases, so these examples will be further spread and adapted.

October 2014